

Biographies of the President,
Vice-President and Trustees

ROEDEAN

School Council

Mr Guy Perricone

4

Mr John Cain
FCA

4

Miss Frances Graham
BSc PGCE MCIPD (OR)

4

Ms Mary Henderson
(OR)

4

Miss Claire Jenkins
M(Theol) (OR)

5

Miss Victoria Jenkins
MA PGCSE MEd (OR)

5

Ms Samantha Louis
(SAOR)

5

Ms Karoline Molberg
BA Hons (OR)

6

Mr Anthony Millard
BSc (Econ) PGCE

6

Mr Cornelius Medvei

6

Mrs Teresa Outhwaite
BA PGDip (OR)

6

Ms Delva Patman
FRICS ACIArb

7

Mrs Virginia Stephen
(OR)

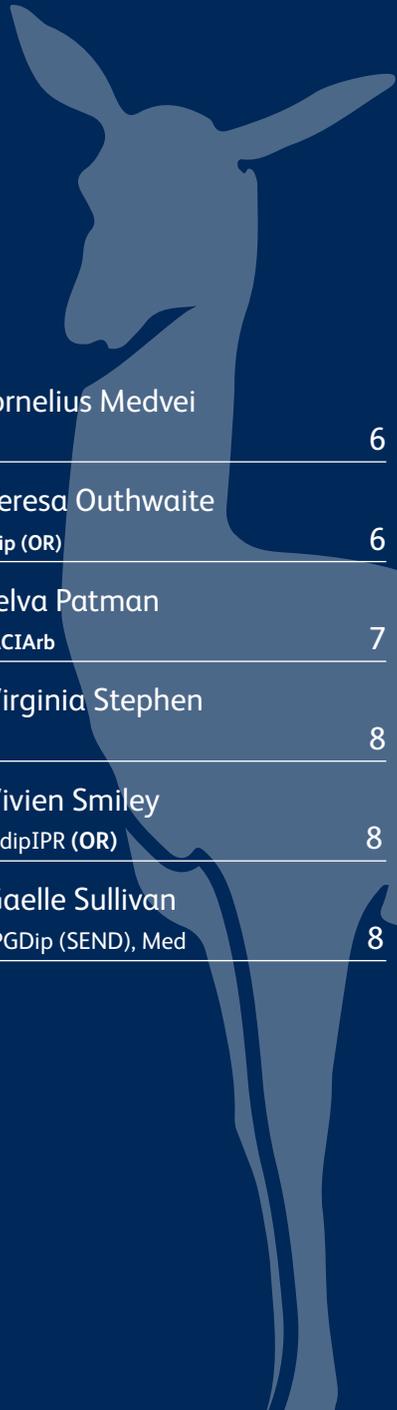

8

Mrs Vivien Smiley
BA MA dipIPR (OR)

8

Mrs Gaelle Sullivan
PGCE, PGDip (SEND), Med

8

Mr Guy Perricone

Guy Perricone has an investment banking background, having worked at major financial institutions including Salomon Brothers, SG Warburg and ABN AMRO after starting his career as a solicitor at Linklaters & Paines. More recently, Guy was the Chief Executive of The Honorable Society of the Middle Temple and prior to that of the Associated Boards of the Royal School of Music (ABRSM). He has held a number of board level positions within the arts and education sectors, including as former Chair of Christ's Hospital School Foundation in West Sussex and the Royal Academy of Dance in London. Mr Perricone is currently Chair of the Northern Ballet in Leeds.

Mr John Cain
FCA

John Cain is an ICAEW Chartered Accountant with a particular focus on risk, governance and compliance. He had a successful career at KPMG where his roles included Head of Global Quality and Compliance for KPMG International; Head of the Global Japanese practice and international lead audit partner, KPMG UK. He has extensive experience of working across different cultures and organisation types and a strong interest both in stakeholder engagement and the impact of education.

Miss Frances Graham
BSc PGCE MCIPD (OR)

After leaving Roedean and becoming a Governor, Frances gained a BSc (Hons) in Operations Engineering from Exeter University. Knowing only 15% of engineering graduates are female, she is keen to illustrate to Roedean girls that no industries are off limits to them.

Her 20-year career has spanned all aspects of Human Resources and she has worked in global financial institutions in the City, specialising in bringing commercial solutions to boards of directors.

Frances is a rare Great Granddaughter of the school. Her grandmother, mother, sister and ten other family members all attended. Frances, is passionate about girls' (single-sex) education in general, and Roedean in particular.

Ms Mary Henderson
(OR)

Mary has worked and lived both in the UK and Europe where she has gained experience of a multinational, multicultural workplace. For most of her career she has worked in the international oil industry as an IT generalist and then as an IT project manager successfully delivering large, complex, software projects. As well as project management she is qualified in quality management systems and process improvement methodologies. A move into aviation fuel operations resulted in appointments as a Board Director or Chair of several Joint Venture companies in the UK, Europe and the Far East.

She was responsible for ensuring safe, efficient operations, improving governance and shareholder returns. Mary has long term experience in managing and negotiating contracts and third-party agreements. She retired in 2019. Having served on the ORA Committee since 2016, she became President of the ORA in 2020 and was elected for a second term in 2021. Mary is an OR and Governor, was Head of No.3 and Lawrence House. Her family has long term connections with the school.

Miss Claire Jenkins
M(Theol) (OR)

Following an illustrious executive career, which began in the City, Claire is now a plural Non-Executive Director. She has substantial financial and award-winning communications expertise across a wide-range of organisations, including charities.

Claire was on the management boards of two international FTSE100 companies, heading communications' functions and responsible for financial and operational performance. For 10 years she also led strategic planning and business development, including financial/investment transactions.

As a NED, Claire was a member of the Audit Committee of another FTSE100 company for six years. Her current roles include: Chair of Amicus (a legal human-rights charity); and member of the UK Advisory Board of Board Apprentice.

Claire's life-long, widely-recognised commitment to Roedean – which she credits for her professional successes – has led her to want to bring her 33 years of financial, commercial/corporate, communications/marketing and director/trustee experience to the Council of Trustees, to support the School's future success.

Miss Victoria Jenkins
MA PGCSE MEd (OR)

Victoria was an Educational Psychologist for 37 years, most recently with Birmingham City Council, for which she was also one of the Safeguarding Leads.

She worked with schools helping to solve problems, ranging from; supporting named children to overcome specific difficulties, working for/with groups of pupils on outcomes agreed with the school-staff, reviewing whole-school-systems, and creating policies.

Victoria's happy and successful time at Roedean provided her with the impetus to devote her life to education. She wanted others to have similar opportunities. In addition to supporting academic achievements for all abilities, her interests include; stress-management, building resilience, anti-bullying and safeguarding work, and the various barriers to effective written literacy.

Ms Samantha Louis
(SAOR)

An alumna of Roedean South Africa, Samantha Louis is Vice President of International Advocacy at the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants. She has worked for the Africa Region of the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) for 22 years, including as Director, is a Fellow of CIMA and is a Chartered Global Management Accountant.

Samantha is also a registered Accredited Public Relations Practitioner with the Public Relations Institute of Southern Africa, and has post-graduate qualifications in public relations and management, as well as a Master's degree in Business Administration. Samantha serves on the Advisory Board of the Australian Institute of Performance Science, and on the City of London Lord Mayor's Appeal Diversity Senior Leadership Group.

Samantha is an experienced Board director in Executive and non-executive roles at national, continental and global level, including having served for two years on the Roedean South Africa Board of Directors. An enthusiastic OR, she spent many years as Secretary of the South African Old Roedeanian Association.

Ms Karoline Molberg
BA Hons (OR)

Karoline Molberg is a director, non-executive director and Consultant in several roles that focus on advising financial institutions and companies on the marketing of products, raising capital and developing business activities. After leaving Roedean, she went on to complete a BA Hons in Business Studies at Kingston University, and from there embarked on her career in Financial Services. Karoline is FCA qualified and is currently SMCR accredited.

Her career spans 20+ years where she has held Partner level and Senior Manager positions at leading global Investment Banks, Asset Managers and Hedge Funds. With extensive experience selling and marketing equities, fixed income, derivatives and private markets, Karoline has worked for institutions such as HSBC James Capel, Bankers Trust, Millennium Global and most recently working for a global Canadian Investment Manager, Fiera Capital, as Head of Marketing (Europe). Karoline looks forward to bringing her professional skills to support Roedean Council.

Mr Anthony Millard
BSc (Econ) PGCE

Anthony Millard is a former headmaster with lengthy experience of education both in the UK and internationally.

After his time in schools, he was managing director of the school's division of a leading educational business before setting up his own educational consultancy.

He is an experienced governor, including ten years as chair of a prominent international school.

Anthony is married with four children. Educated at Solihull School, The London School of Economics and Balliol College Oxford he was also a stagiaire with the Commission of the European Union.

His interests include history, literature and walking in the hills at increasingly lower levels.

Mr Cornelius Medvei

Cornelius Medvei is a real estate lawyer who has had a distinguished career in major law firms, including over 25 years as a partner in Eversheds, where his roles included Head of Real Estate, London Managing Partner and London Senior Partner. He was subsequently a partner and Head of Clients at King & Wood Mallesons, General Counsel at Fenwick Limited and a consultant at DLA Piper. He has been a Governor of Southbank Centre and held roles as both a member and as Chair of various Arts and professional boards and is currently Chair of homelessness charity, the Mitheridge Foundation.

Mrs Teresa Outhwaite
BA PGDip (OR)

Teresa is an Old Roedeanian and a parent of a current pupil. Teresa has extensive expertise within project and estate management via her role as the CEO of an international property portfolio, including large, complex CAPEX projects, and their marketing. Further estates work includes successful grant applications to create sustainable, renewable and self-sufficient energy sources.

Teresa has previous senior management experience of running a SME business which had global representation through international marketing, sales and PR partners. Teresa has held the positions of Treasurer and Chair on the board of other Charities, primarily focussing on fundraising, event management and engaging with stakeholders. She also has direct experience of working in the education sector, designing, delivering and teaching courses for further education and adult education.

Ms Delva Patman
FRICS ACIArb

Delva Patman qualified as a Chartered Surveyor in 1969. In 1980, after 16 years in local government and private practice, working in London, Europe and the Middle East, Patman founded Patman Associates, now Patman Redler LLP. Renowned as an expert on rights of light, party wall and neighbourly issues, she has advised on a diverse range of notable commercial, public, and private development projects throughout the UK.

A member of Council of Christ's Hospital School, Horsham and Governor of Channing School, Highgate, chairing the Estates Committees of both until 2021, she was also Chairman of the University College of Estate Management, when it received taught degree awarding powers.

Delva was a Vice President of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (2003 – 2006) and the first female Master of the Worshipful Company of Chartered Surveyors (1999/2000). Previous appointments include chair of Redbridge & Waltham Forest Health Authority, member of the National Employers Advisory Board and Trustee of Toynbee Housing Association

She is a Trustee of St Clement Danes Church and a Lieutenant of His Majesty's Commission of Lieutenancy for the City of London, a member of the Board of the City Reserve Forces and Cadets Association and the Greater London RFCA Property Board.

Having completed 15 years as the first Hon Air Commodore 7010 (VR) Photographic Interpretation Squadron of the Royal Auxiliary Air Force in 2017 she retains the rank as a member of 601(County of London) Squadron RAuxAF.

Mrs Virginia Stephen
(OR)

Ginny was President of the Old Roedeans' Association from 2016 to 2020, and also previously on the ORA Committee from 1998 to 2000, when she edited the OR Magazine. She was a member of the Council's Working Group set up in 2019 to encourage Old Roedeans to become Governors of the School in accordance with its Royal Charter, the practice having been discontinued in 2004.

Ginny qualified as a Solicitor, having previously been a member of Gray's Inn while reading for the Bar. She joined a major firm in the city where she specialised in property law. She retired from practice when her husband became a Member of Parliament in 1992. She is currently a Director of Whitelands House (Chelsea) Ltd, and lives in London and Surrey.

Whilst acknowledging the aims of the various Governor groups, Ginny considers that a more professional and unified approach would greatly enhance Roedean's reputation in a global market. The talents, experience and commitment of Roedean's alumnae would enable all to work towards the highest standards in a very competitive environment.

Mrs Vivien Smiley
BA MA DipIPR (OR)

Vivien Smiley has a background in PR, public affairs and stakeholder relations. Since leaving Roedean and graduating from the University of Nottingham, she has worked in sport, higher education and the commercial sector. This includes time spent as Head of Communications for the Lawn Tennis Association (LTA), where she also led bids for inward investment from the public sector.

Vivien has a strong understanding of education policy and the private education market, with three young children at prep school on the Kent/Sussex border where she lives. She is also a Trustee Board Member of Freedom Leisure, a not-for-profit trust, and a Governor of an Academy in the maintained sector.

Mrs Gaelle Sullivan
PGCE, PGDip (SEND), Med

Gaelle has a background in education. She trained as a languages teacher and taught for nearly 20 years in a range of settings. She was a senior leader and safeguarding lead in two leading independent schools. Gaelle is a qualified Special Needs Coordinator and holds a Masters Degree in Inclusive Education. She now conducts research and inclusion work with boarding schools.

Roedean School, Roedean Way, Brighton, East Sussex, BN2 5RQ
Registered Charity 307063

T: +44(0)1273 667500 | E: jco@roedean.co.uk | W: roedean.co.uk
facebook.com/RoedeanSchool | twitter.com/RoedeanSchool

