

Roedean

An independent 11-18 girls' day and boarding school in Brighton

Required from September 2024

Chemistry Teacher

Roedean is an extraordinary school, sitting within the South Downs National Park and overlooking the English Channel. It is not just the location, but our reputation for excellence in pastoral care, our strong academic focus, and our genuine belief in the importance of creativity and an all-round education, that makes Roedean unique.

We are seeking a remarkable and visionary person to join our team. You will be experienced and well qualified, but most importantly, you will have the girls' aspirations and welfare at the heart of your vision. We are seeking someone who values kindness and generosity, who can build transformational relationships and who wants to make a difference to every individual, as an individual.

This is a great opportunity for a highly skilled and enthusiastic Teacher of Chemistry with a passion for their subject and a commitment to ensure that every pupil flourishes in the highly successful department. The post holder will teach Chemistry to all Key Stages including A Level.

We welcome your interest in being part of our journey at a time of continued development.

Roedean is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post including checks with past employers and with the DBS.

Please download an application pack from our website (www.roedean.co.uk/Vacancies) or contact Louisa Butler via vacancies@roedean.co.uk. Please note we do not accept CVs.

Closing date: 9am, 3 May 2024. Due to the need to appoint quickly we reserve the right to interview and appoint at any stage of the process.
